Chapter 1 by 14gaz38

My name is Sara. When i was 10 my parents split up. My mum went to live in an island in the Carribean but i couldn't go and live with her because there weren't any schools there. My dad always hated me and deffinatly dfidnt want to look after me so i was sent to an orphanage.

When i was 12 the orphanage decided i needed some space to be me, so they sent me to boarding school in the south of England. This where my story starts. Alone. Crying.

My life was messed up all right. I had no friends because i didnt speak much and the teacher were all so strict. there were a group of girls in my year called the 'populars' . i dont know why they hated me, they just did. I had to be in a dorm with them qand when i9 burst out crying there only reply was; when will you shut up.

Chapter 2 by Gounaitory

Life might be not so easier, we can stay or feel alone in this world. But we have to know one thing-- if bad things are happening to us, then the good things will happen. Life is a balance. Bad and good things in our lives stay in equal position. Everything is balanced.

Sara, I guarantee you that everything is gonna be alright much more than you expect. Just never lose your belief and never lose yourself...
